

Need a speaker for your organization?

VAHS has a cadre of knowledgeable individuals available to educate and entertain your group on aspects of Venice history.

List of Topics as of December 2018

- Bertha Palmer: An In-Character Representation
- Mable Ringling: An In-Character Portrayal
- A Reflective View of Venice: From the Calusa to the Present Day
- The Venice Depot: Then and Now
- How The Devil in the White City Connected Englewood and Venice: Exploring Area History Between 1893 and 1928
- The History of Eagle Point: A Historic District Within the City of Venice
- The Historic Venice Train Depot: An Overview of Railroad and Depot History
- History of the Intracoastal Waterway
- History of the Venice Army Air Base
- History of the Kentucky Military Institute (KMI) in Venice

These programs are made available through volunteer efforts of VAHS members. Some topics are available on a limited basis. Timely scheduling of a topic is suggested.

Please contact Clarke Pressly for more information at 941-412-0151.

www.veniceareahistoricalsociety.org

PO Box 995, Venice, FL 34284-0995